'REPLACE BEANIES!' COUNCIL ORDERS

Xavier Signs Freedom Scroll

Senior Ed Nock receives his Freedom Bell button from senior Bob Ort, crusading member of the Xavier Freedom Pledge Committee.

In co-operation with the Crusade for Freedom campaign, last Thursday and Friday were set aside for Xavier students to sign the Freedom Scroll. The Student Council conducted the "roll-call of democracy" in front of Bellarmine Chapel. Three hundred twenty-seven students signed the declaration. Donations were accepted for the purchase of radios for Eastern Europe so that the Voice of America might be extended; $11.27 was collected on campus.

The Crusade for Freedom is a "spiritual air-lift" designed to give comfort and courage to the enslaved people of the world. All who signed the scroll proclaim their belief in man's dignity and right to freedom and announce their determination to resist any infringement upon that freedom anywhere on earth.

The campaign has enlisted the aid of national and local religious and civic leaders. General Lucius D. Clay is national chairman and Fred Lazarus III, prominent Cincinnati business man, is in charge of the local promotion of the scroll.

President Calls For "Education That Is Integrally Christian"

Fr. Maguire Speaker At Bellarmine College

"An imperative need today is for education that is integrally Christian," Very Reverend James F. Maguire, S. J., President of Xavier, told the faculty and students of the newly-founded Bellarmine College, Louisville, Ky., at its inaugural ceremonies in the Cathedral of the Assumption last week.

Comparing the opening of the new college to the founding of our American Republic, Fr. Maguire said "By most of the Founding Fathers of the American Republic, the historic import of their meeting in Philadelphia and of their Declaration of Independence, was completely missed. Yet, that immortal and glorious instrument proved to be the almost perfect flowering in the political field of 17 centuries and 67 generations of Christian tradition and life."

In his address, Fr. Maguire also stated that although America enjoys supreme military and political leadership in the United Nations of the world, her spiritual leadership that was once felt to the ends of the earth is now be-

High Schools Enter Twirling Contest

Drum majors and majorettes from 30 area high schools will compete in a baton twirling contest between halves of the Xavier-Lawrence Tech. game, Saturday, Oct. 14. Prof. Joseph Link, Jr., chairman of the sports attendance committee, announced Wednesday.

Band and football team personnel, as well as seniors of the competing high schools, will be guests of Xavier. About 5,000, from Greater Cincinnati, Hamilton and Middletown schools, are expected.

ing imperiled by the well-meaning very confused leaders who can but point to the purely materialistic goal of a higher standard of living.

In conclusion Fr. Maguire expressed his hope that the students of the new college will weaken the strong grip of deadly secularist philosophy which tends to lead our nation away from its position of spiritual leader among the great nations.

Rally And Dance To Feature Team And Furnish Dates

The first of a series of Pep-rally and Dance combinations for football and basketball games will be held this Friday night, in the Armory, according to Bob Satzer and Paul Misali, Co-chairmen of the affair.

The Pep-rally will begin at 8:30, with the coaches and players slated to be present. Jerry Thole and his 12-piece Campus Dixielanders will provide the music for the dance, which will begin immediately after the pep-rally, and will last until 12 o'clock.

Collegiennes from Mount St. Joseph and Our Lady of Cincinnati have been invited to participate in the spirit-raising, and the whole affair promises to be a festive one. Admission will be .25 per person. Refreshments will be served.

Freshman Class Nominates 25 Men For Council Posts

Twenty-five Freshmen were nominated for class office at the first general meeting the class has had, held Monday. The prospective candidates were given nomination blanks to be signed by 10 seconds, who must be members of the freshman class. The blanks are to be returned to Rev. J. Peter Buschman, S. J., Dean of Freshmen, by Monday. Students are permitted to second only one nomination.

The general election for the class officers will be held next Thursday and Friday, Fr. Buschman urged the Freshmen to attend all class meetings and to vote at the election.

The names of elections winners will be announced during the halftime ceremonies of the Xavier-Louisiana Tech. game next Saturday.

The names submitted for nomination were Robert A. Linn, George Bath, Frank O'Brien, James Paulus, Robert Fitzpatrick, Peter Burke, Jim Powers, Leo Manion, V. F. Kleman, Paul Blesi, Bob Moulliet, Bob Mitchelson, Vito DeCarlo, Pete Randolph, Jerry Flederman, Dave Skinner, Gene Brassil, John Byrne, Thomas Kellerher, Vic Pasquarella, Peter Fox, Richard Pizzoferrato, Robert Goheen, James McGrath, and Anthony Casale.

Victory Mass, Fatima Devotions On Saturday

There will be a victory mass Saturday at 8:30 a. m. in Bellarmine Chapel to ask God's help for a victory over the Miami Redskins Saturday afternoon.

Rev. Frank T. Dietz, S. J., student counsellor, stressed that Saturday is also First Saturday, a special day for Communion, Rosary and Meditation in accord with Mary's promises at Fatima.

Council Puts Homecoming Festivities Under Chairmen Cade And Kisner

Plans for the "biggest and best" Homecoming celebration ever held at Xavier got under way early this week with the appointment by Student Council of Co-Chairmen to the Homecoming Game committee and the Homecoming Dance committee.

Jack Cade, junior English major and Paul Kisner, a Political Science sophomore, were named by the councilmen to head up the activities which will be held at the Xavier-Louisville game, Saturday, Oct. 21.

The dance, to take place on Friday, Oct. 20, at the Topper, will be Co-chaired by Paul

A drastic piece of legislation, at least, was passed at Monday's Student Council meeting—a motion that all freshmen found not wearing their beanies on campus be reported to a student Judicial Council Also Discussed Homecoming Plans.

Board and sentenced to work on preparations for the Homecoming Float Parade if found guilty.

Ed Nock, President of Dorm Council, informed Council Monday's meeting that his group was sponsoring an excursion to the Xavier-Miami game this Saturday. He added that they had dropped tentative plans to sponsor a journey to Dayton for the Xavier-Dayton contest, Sunday, Oct. 29, in favor of supporting the Student Council's sponsorship of a campus migration to that game. Tom Jacobs and Al Waddell are co-chairmen of the Dayton excursion.

Presiding Council President Jim McGann introduced a motion to send flowers to the funeral of Frank Schnedl, Arts senior, who died suddenly last Saturday morning. The motion was seconded and passed unanimously.

Jim McGann read Council a letter from Bob Marquard, Sodality Prefect calling attention to the Victory Mass for the Miami game. All students able to attend are urged to be present in Bellarmine Chapel Saturday at 8:30 a. m.

At the request of Council that the television in South Hall be turned on in the afternoon during the World Series, Jim McGann (Continued on Page 8)

Alumni Dance Closed

Students are not invited to attend the Alumni Homecoming Dance and reception to be held at the Hotel Alms. The Homecoming Dance of Friday night, Oct. 20, at the Topper club is designated as the student Homecoming dance. The Alumni dance is for Alumni only. In the past, students who have attended this dance have been definitely out of place by doing so.

Haas, an English major senior, and Dick Kleinschmidt, junior Philosophy major.

According to the co-chairmen of game festivities, the annual float parade, climaxed by the presentation of the Queen of Homecoming, will highlight pre-game activities, with the winning floats returning for awards during the half-time ceremonies. The Alumni Association, according to Bill Bocklage, Alumni Secretary will award several (Continued on Page 8)

Musician To Open Arts Series With First Lecture Thursday

Well Known Composer To Appear On Campus

Mrs. Margaret McClure Stitt, widely known lecturer, composer and playwright, will be the first of eight speakers to be presented in a series of free monthly lectures by the Xavier Fine Arts Committee. Mrs. Stitt's lecture, entitled "Music and its Relation to Human Welfare," will be given in the Albers Hall Fine Arts Room Thursday evening, October 12, at 8:15.

Mrs. Stitt's early musical education was obtained at the Cincinnati College of Music, and was supplemented by intense reading in the field and by a wide acquaintanceship with musicians and music specialists. She has lectured frequently at the University of Cincinnati and at numerous local clubs. Several of her one-act and full length plays were produced by the Terminal Little Theatre group a few years ago. Mrs. Stitt is the wife of Dr. Howard L. Stitt, prominent ear, nose and throat specialist.

The lecture series, to be presented the second Thursday of each month, October through May, will offer many names prominent in both local and national music circles. Dr. Herbert T. Schwartz, professor of Philosophy at Xavier, and a pianist of exceptional ability, will deliver the second lecture in the series, entitled "Technique in Music," on Thursday, November 9. Dr. Schwartz will also attend the other seven lectures as a listener, and conclude the series in May with a seminar on the whole field.

Frank Inserni, instructor in Spanish and education, is in charge of the music section of the Faculty Fine Arts Committee. Students assisting Inserni in preparation of the program are Jeanne Dossman and Mary Zimmer, from the Evening College, and Herc Ruether, Tom Harris and Al Moser from the Evanston campus.

» Arts Are Fine, But . . .

The cause of art is being given a considerable nudge forward at Xavier these days. A slow-starting Fine Arts Committee began Wednesday a series of weekly records in the Albers Hall Fine Arts Room. On Thursday night of next week, the committee is presenting the first of a series of nine monthly lectures on musical subjects. Margaret McClure Stitt, the first speaker, is a lecturer of considerable local prominence, and numbers among other talents composing and playwriting.

The News commends the Fine Arts committee and the administration for sponsoring these affairs. But it cautions the committee, and by the same token, the administration, to progress surely. The platitude is reversed advisedly.

The students at Xavier are slow to accept art and art appreciation. The blame, however, can hardly rest on them. For many years the only sort of Fine Arts course that has been offered at Xavier has been the Appreciation of Literature—poetry and drama. Music, painting, sculpture, architecture—all are foreign to the Xavier curriculum. Yet for years the University has conferred the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts on students who have never looked at a painting or sculpture analytically, whose musical interests are confined to Kenton and Kostelant, and who probably think that a Corinthian capital is the home city of an oriental potentate.

The seeds of the garden of art were planted when the President appointed a Faculty Fine Arts Committee last December. We have seen the first flower. We can hope for a full bouquet.

» Beyond Breadwinning

Last spring Xavier's Student Council apparently could find no financial gear but reverse. Although they managed to get black ink back in the books before the closing of classes, still there was a general conviction around campus that the student representatives could have managed the business department of their doings with greater skill and success.

This year the anemic account book is being transformed by a small but vitalizingly steady diet of green. And with what appears to be sound planning of social events for the rest of the school term, council will very probably continue to strengthen itself from a financial point of view.

Now that the student councilmen no longer need to concern themselves exclusively with breadwinning, however, perhaps they should make an effort to realize the broader possibilities of their positions. It is too true a complaint that council affects only a portion of the average student's life—his social activity. Intellectually and spiritually the appreciable result of Student Council's work could be increased considerably.

For instance: the intellectual life of the university might get a needed shot in the arm if the councilmen would enact legislation pro-

» Gentleman Of Xavier?

When the UC football scores are announced over the PA system at Xavier home games there is an inclination on the part of some Xavier rooters to cheer if UC is on the trailing or losing end.

Whether this unhappy trait is prevalent at the UC stadium when a Xavier losing score is announced is not our immediate concern.

It is of pressing import, however, to arrest a tendency of these alleged Xavier fans to approach and sometimes cross the line dividing a healthy rivalry and a fanatic disapproval of every effort of the crosstown university.

The University of Cincinnati is a large school. That is a fact. It is evidently intent upon building an athletic program on a scale with which Xavier will find it increasingly difficult to compete. That is a fact. Adolescent mutterings will neither alter these facts nor reflect the honest determination of our teams to defeat UC as often and as decisively as possible.

Why Xavier fans should wish ill of a football squad representing the municipality of Cincinnati against out-of-town and out-of-state teams is beyond our ken. Xavier has grown and prospered within the boundaries of this fine, friendly city; Xavier has contributed unrestrainedly to the growth and prosperity of Cincinnati. A more compatible relationship can scarcely be imagined. The players of each team, the faculties, the school treasures and the institutions themselves have profited enormously from this athletic relationship. Only the various sophomoric elements of the student bodies have used this rivalry as a vehicle for loud-mouthed disparagement of the two participating schools.

For Xavier rooters to support Xavier teams against out-of-staters should be a commendable symptom of civic pride as well as a demonstration of school spirit. Cheering UC defeats is at best a negative and lefthanded participation in a vicarious victory—an activity in which no real man of Xavier would indulge.

There is only one game Xavier wants UC to lose, and, God willing, that defeat will be engineered by our team members demonstrating that fabulous and legendary "Muskie spirit" which has always been the hallmark of the never-disgraced Blue Battalion, but which seems so scarce of commodity in the stands among the undergrads and alumni, who should know better.

Now is the time for all good undergrads and alumni to realize and measure up to the standards of real "men of Xavier."

viding for grading of teachers and for student-faculty open forums in which such topics as the fundamental reason for a Catholic university's existence might be argued out.

If Council's only purpose were to stage parties and dances, it would be nothing but a social committee. But as long as it goes by the name of Student Council, its members should try to present the average student in all phases of his college life.

on them one, two or three days in advance, they can hardly be blamed if they do not bend Heaven and earth to get there.

Al Moser, our entertainment columnist, has been named Xavier correspondent to the Cincinnati Post. His first column appeared Wednesday and will appear twice weekly from now until the end of the school year. His "beat" includes Xavier (all divisions), OLC and Mt. St. Jo.

Now I've seen everything—three persons in the front seat of a Crsley. Al Dickert, Bob White and Bob Fox were observed crowded into the front of Fox's "auto" Monday. They seemed to be enjoying themselves, while the car traveled fully three miles per hour along the driveway by South Hall.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I wish to congratulate the writer of the letter to the editor which appeared in the first edition of the News. I was at Xavier during the time when the rosy crusade was given its first impetus, and I may point a finger at those exercises as part of the reason for my being in the seminary now—We must prepare ourselves to be spiritual leaders in the world through the help of the Blessed Mother of God.

Wishing you success in your work for the year,

Grad Division Has 161 Enrolled

One hundred and sixty-one students in the Graduate Division began their classes on Sept. 18.

Dr. Raymond F. McCoy, head of the graduate school, noted that many of these students were teachers seeking their masters degree in education. Fifty-four were thus engaged, 46 were in the Master of Arts course and 23 were working for a Master of Science degree. The remaining 38 are special students who are not candidates for any degree.

● Class Officers Should Announce Meetings Well In Advance; Al Moser Named Post Correspondent.

Now that the school year has definitely started, everybody is in the groove and ready to live the life of a University citizen. Part of said citizen's life should consist of going to class meetings to participate in his class's activities.

It has been my experience the past three years that class meetings are very sparsely attended, with the result that action voted upon can hardly be considered a mirror of class opinion.

A certain amount of editorial space is used in the News each year to urge large attendance, and deplore small ditto, and it is true that indifference is part of the picture.

However, I believe class officers are at least partly at fault.

It should be a matter of policy for all class meetings, barring extraordinary emergencies, to be called at least one week in advance. Signs should be up, and word passed around.

Many students have jobs or other plans, with the result that unless they are informed well in advance of a meeting, they simply will not be able to set aside time for attendance.

When a meeting is sprung up-

Xavier Campus Variety Show Opens 25 TV Weeks On WCPO

"Xavier Presents", one of three campus variety shows in the nation, opened a 25 week run Sunday on WCPO-TV. Replete with talent from Xavier and nearby campuses, the one hour television show was officially opened by the Very Rev. James F. Maguire, S.J., President of Xavier.

Dixieland Band

Jerry Thole, musical director for "Xavier Presents," has a new seven piece Dixieland band organized this year and it will be on hand for all the shows. Prof. Joseph Link, Jr., faculty director, will be heard at the organ and Robert J. Ort will play the organ and piano.

Partial plans for next Sunday's show calls for a return engagement by Jean and Jim Nieman, tap dancing twins. Jim is a student at Xavier and Jean is at OLC. Fran Quinn, Dayton University football captain, and Leroy Ka-Ne, the Flyers' colorful Hawaiian halfback, will be guests on the sports spot.

Stage Crew Appointed

Prof. Link announced that a staff of 75 students is now operating to produce the show. Lee Hornback has been appointed stage manager with a crew of 10 assistants. Hubert Polder, Art Academy, graduate, has already completed three sets, part of his job as special technical director. Tom Tully is master of ceremonies and Gerry Keefe and Frank Kurlman are in charge of the special skits. Gerry and Jim Keefe are in charge of the sports spot and the latter is also director of publicity and public

Philopadians View Coming Year With Odds Against Them

By Herc Ruether

Disgust over the national debate topic, inability to find a suitable meeting time and loss of several adroit speakers has not prevented the members of the Poland Philopadian Society from entering the 110th year of the organization with no doubt of a successful season.

The thought of debating "Resolved: that the non-Communist nations of the world form a new international organization" has caused the usual early season griping about how ridiculous and how poorly worded the college debate topics are. Philip Scharper, moderator of the society, reported that, after a few weeks of research, discussion and repression of the urge to compete, the various teams, pro and con, will begin the serious business of persuading others.

Murphy Absent

Denny Murphy's absence from the president's chair has caused pain relieved only by the probability that he will return next semester. Transfer and graduation have caused the loss of three ready-witted orators and scholastic schedules portend the loss of two more.

Duties and activities of both moderator and members have hampered acquaintance with the topic and programming the year's activities. Scharper is now going through a maze of schedules trying to end the two-and three-man meetings held various times at divergent locale and find a time when at least a majority of veterans can meet and some new blood can be injected.

Reasons For Confidence

The continuance of Scharper as moderator is one of the two big reasons for the confidence of the word and file card boys. Ever since the crepe-soled-Easterner accepted Victor Dial's offer to take over the club in '49 he has been injecting bounce and debate know-how into the boys. They realize this and know that with his continued guidance Xavier will return to big time debating.

The second reason for their optimism is the probability of more debates this year, due to the contacts and impressions made by the different teams entered in six tournaments and several individual contests last season. Over the year, Xavier came out with a 50-50 won-lost

Archbishop Alter Addresses Marian Day Rally In Fieldhouse

Virgin Mother Honored; 6,000 Persons Attend

"If we sincerely ask Our Blessed Mother for help, ultimate victory will be ours," was the challenge and the promise of His Excellency, the Most Rev. Karl J. Alter, Archbishop of Cincinnati, in an address at the Marian Day rally in the Xavier Fieldhouse Sunday.

Speaking to an overflow crowd of more than 6,000, Archbishop Alter compared the present crisis with the times of the Crusades, when prayer and penance, the very requests of Our Lady at Fatima and Lourdes, were the bulwark of the Christians in their attempts to recover the Holy Land from the infidels.

Christianity Did Not Fail

Referring to the present world conditions, he said, "It was not Christianity that failed the world but refusal of the people to accept spiritual values over material and to safeguard the dignity of the individual as a child of God."

"It was not Christian nations which pushed forward their frontiers by force or conquest, nor was it Christian policy that has brought misery, hunger and death to the people of Middle Europe and the East. Russia has flooded the world with her evil propaganda and has begun a ruthless aggression against both the spiritual and temporal welfare of mankind." Archbishop Alter went on to say that the conflict between Christian Democracy and Soviet Communism today is simply "a decisive struggle between freedom and slavery."

Cooperation Needed

"Christian nations have repeatedly indicated their willingness to cooperate on a basis of record, but many coaches and debaters were affected by the Philopadians and expressed a desire to meet Xavier again. The biggest impression was made at Georgetown, Ky., when 'X' placed second in a two day, 36 school contest.

On Oct. 29, the Philopadians, headquarters group of the Cincinnati Region Forensic Commission, will conduct a panel on forensics. There will be a discussion of the topic and formulation of debate activity for the nine member schools.

individual dignity, life and liberty, but cooperation is not a 'one-way street.' For nations of the Christian tradition cannot cooperate in deceit, cruelty, robbery and judicial murder against fellow human beings nor in blasphemy against God," he declared.

Alluding again to the factor of devotion to the Blessed Virgin in the fate of the world, the Archbishop recalled the great victory of the Christian world over Mohammedanism at Lepanto in 1571 and Mary's part in the victory. He urged the faithful to continued recitation of the Rosary as an excellent way of appealing to Mary for aid. At the conclusion of his talk, Archbishop Alter led the assembled crowd in the recitation of the "Memorare" and opened the program of devotions.

3000 Voice Choir

Included in the prayers said to Our Lady were the Rosary, the Act of Consecration to the Blessed Virgin, and the Litany of Loretto. The 3000 voice choir of elementary, secondary, college and seminary students sang several selections and the rally was closed by the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Campus Committee Ready For Miami Game Excursion

Final plans for the bus trip to the Miami game were formulated at Monday's meeting of the Campus Committee.

Rev. Lester A. Linz, S. J., moderator of the organization, urged all dorm students to get behind the projects of the Campus Committee. He pointed out that no profit is being made on affairs of this nature; in his words, "It is a service to the school and the students."

Tentative plans for an intramural touch football tournament for the dorm students were also announced at the meeting. A committee has been appointed to arrange things so that competition can start as soon as possible.

It was announced that the Campus Committee treasury was solvent to the extent of some $200. This money will be used for the benefit of the dorm students.

Tickets for the trip and the game were distributed to all council members who were to sell them to only to dorm men and their friends. The bus fare is $1, and the ticket to the game costs $2.50. All returns on the tickets were to have been made by last Wednesday night.

801 W. CENTRAL AVE. - CINCINNATI

Xavier's Musketeers, playing their own peculiarly fascinating brand of football, threaten to set a new scoring record this year. In winning their first three games with confident offensive spurts, they have scored at least four touchdowns in each contest. The last Xavier team to score at least four touchdowns in each of the first three games was the 1934 squad, which scored 41, 32 and 30 points against Transylvania, Kenyon and Findlay. That crew won six, lost two and tied one. If this year's aggregation can surpass that record, and from the way they've been scoring freely it looks like they will, Muskies fans will have no room for gripes.

But on the subject of gripes, the football team itself has a legitimate right to the same. Sandy DeSantis, the boss of the cheerleaders, informed us that after the first quarter of the Morehead game, the Xavier cheering section seemed to suffer from mass laryngitis. One student told us that he was sitting in the student section and that it was so devoid of cheers that he could actually hear what the players were saying on the visitor's bench across the field. It's backing, or rather lack of backing like this that has eaten the spirit out of many a great football team and left it a disappointing ghost.

Morehead's quarterback, Charlie Porter, surprised many of the crowd at the game Saturday night by playing without any protective padding at all. We were informed that he has never worn any padding in eight years of high school and college ball. What is even more amazing is the fact that he has never had to leave a game even for the slightest injury. No pads may increase a quarterback's maneuverability, true, but if we had to play regularly against the likes of John Martinkovic, Tito Carinci and the rest of Murderer's Row, we'd wear a suit of armor.

Important question asked about the personalities congregating around the Xavier bench Saturday, Where was Baron? A home game is not complete without the complete turnout of Xavier's special canine students.

Cliff Wilke had many fans worried before tallying his touchdown in the fourth quarter. Everybody was anxious to see him extend his consecutive game scoring streak to 14 over two years. It's wonderful to be able to say you scored in every one of your college games but with pressure mounting with each game, it might be just as well if the streak is stopped sometime.

The stands went slightly wild Saturday night when Pete Lerario lofted that beautiful touchdown pass to Bernie Roackers. Everybody has been looking for the Washington senior to shake the bad luck jinx and maybe this is the beginning of sunnier days for Pedro.

While the officiating at John Carroll had Xavier in a dither two weeks ago, the whistle-calling Saturday night could be laid open to criticism by Morehead. The referee who counted the penalties off against the visitors was always getting his lines mixed up so that he would dole out 19 yards instead of the intended 15. Everybody seemed to see it but the other officials. Also, Morehead was once fined 15 yards for defensive holding when the penalty is only five.

On the sour side, the Xavier players reported that the Morehead team was far from the cleanest ever faced. One Muskies said that when the Eagles found they could not score through the Xavier defense, they decided to get even with a little extra curricular mixing. The result was many 15 yard penalties for the Kentucky team and a long hospital list for Xavier. John Bacci, junior tackle from Chicago, says more men were injured against Morehead than in the Kentucky opener two years ago, the previous high.

Some Morehead linemen were reported to have had fiber boards tapped to their forearms and were making mincemeat of the faces of the Xavier players. Very sporting! One player said he could see nothing wrong with it and that he had used this bludgeon all during the Marshall game the week before.

When George Gilmartin attempted to pass from his own end zone early in the game Saturday, it marked a distinct takeoff from the conservative signal-calling of the past few years. Thrilling tricks like this are the specialty of great quarterbacks such as Bob Williams and Johnny Lujack of Notre Dame who know they have ten good men working with them. Apparently George thinks the same thing and acts accordingly.

Once again, Xavier will travel to Oxford, Ohio Saturday to meet Miami University. Because of a Mid-America Conference rule prohibiting a member school from playing in the hometown of another member school, all the Xavier-Miami games must be played in the beautiful but small Redskin stadium. University of Cincinnati and Miami are both members of the MAC. So as the interbets of a deplorable situation, Xavier must play all its games against Miami in the Redskin's hunting grounds, thus depriving many Musketeer fans of the chance to see the game every other year when their teams play down here as they should. The last time Xavier and Miami played in Xavier stadium was in 1947 when an underdog Xavier eleven tied the Sun-Bowl bound Redskins, 6-6, for the only blemish on an otherwise clean slate.

Two Touchdowns In One Minute, Xavier's Final Period Scoring Spree Feature Night Contest

By Jude Hills

Preceded by reams of publicity, the Morehead College football squad steamed into Cincinnati last Saturday bent on continuing its scoring binge that had netted 104 points in two games. Coach Kluska's Musketeers sent them home, however, with a measly seven and buried their upset aspirations under a 42 point scoring avalanche that marked Xavier's third straight win in the 1950 season and sixth in a row over a two year period.

Ten thousand fans came to watch the expected scoring duel and after one minute of play they began wondering if the scoreboard would be able to register all points, as each team racked up a quick seven in the first 58 seconds.

Xavier hit first after moving the kickoff to the 38 yard line. George Gilmartin connected with Hugh O'Brien on the initial attempt from scrimmage for a 62 yard curtain raiser. Gerry Keefe converted.

Eagles Score

Morehead's Charlie Porter and Len Layne then teamed on the Eagles first try from scrimmage and outdid the Xavier duo by working a 66 yard pass play that also went for a touchdown. Wing's conversion tied it up.

The game settled down after this spurge and a blocked Morehead punt, that rolled out of the end zone, was the only other scoring in the period, giving the Muskies a 9-7 advantage. Xavier added two more scores in the second quarter to lead 22-7.

Jim Gray Earns National Recognition; Golfer Places High In Summer Tourneys

By Jerry Thole

Not only have football and basketball brought national recognition, here to Xavier, but a fellow by the name of James M. Grady has brought it in the form of golfing. Jim is a sophomore striving for a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree. His first year here, he received a varsity letter besides being low man on the golf squad. He has qualified in a total of 24 city, state, and national tournaments. Jim began his golfing career while still in grade school.

At Purcell High from which he graduated in 1949, he received three varsity letters and was captain his last year. In 1947 he competed in four tournaments, the Hamilton County High School Tournament, the Cincinnati Junior Golf Tournament, in which he reached the quarter finals, the Cincinnati Caddie Tournament where he was one of the semi-finalists and this qualified him for the National Caddie Tournament which was held at Ohio State University. In this tournament he placed among the first 25.

Six More Meets
Between his graduation from Purcell and prior to entering Xavier, he was kept busy by entering six more tournaments. In the Hamilton County High School Tournament, Jim led Purcell into a runner-up position. In the Cincinnati Junior Golf Tournament, held at Crest Hills Country Club, he was a quarter finalist. He then entered the State Junior Golf Tourney at Dayton and finished twelfth out of the 200 entries.

Busy Golfer
The spring of his junior year saw him in five more tournaments. He entered the Hamilton County High School Tournament and was tied for the runner-up position. He then entered the Tri-State High School Tournament in which Purcell placed fourth. After that came the Cincinnati Caddie Tournament in which he was medalist. Then came the Cincinnati Open Amateur Tournament in which he qualified among the first ten. As a climax to that year, he entered after receiving, and sped down the sidelines for a 46 yard scoring operation.

The biggest factor in the run-away was Morehead's inability to gain on the ground, which made passing their only hope, and Coach Kluska had primed his defensive for just such an occurrence. At that they were successful on better than half of their attempts but three Xavier interceptions stymied their effectiveness.

Meeting Held For Organization Of Intra-Murals

Discussion between Intramural Boss Ned Wulk and Campus Committee representatives Jim Bulger and Don Phillips were held this week. Last week, the campus organization took inventory throughout the dormitories regarding the captains and members of the teams who wish to compete in the IM sport activities. The captains were appointed from each dorm. Their purpose is to act as organizers responsible for the assembling of the teams in their respective halls for the various sports.

League High School Championship for nine years straight. 1950, his first year at Xavier, was probably his best year. With the team he entered the Ohio Intercollegiate Golf Tourney and they placed second. They won eight and lost four last year. Jim then entered the Cincinnati Junior Chamber of Commerce Tournament and finished first. This qualified him for the State J. C. Tournament in which he placed second. The tournament board then sent Jim and the winner, with all expenses paid, to Ames, Iowa to compete in the National J. C. Golf Tourney.

In the second round the Ohio State winner was eliminated and that left it up to Jim to finish the tourney. He went on to obtain fifth place in the nation out of the original 1500 starters. He was finally beaten in the quarter finals.

Takes Golf Seriously

After he came back home he wasn't satisfied with what he had, so he entered the Cincinnati Amateur Tournament, the Tri-State Golf Tourney, and just two weeks ago he finished the Hamilton County Club, and Campbell Counties Golf Tournament. In all of these he placed among the first five.

All in all Jim takes his golf pretty seriously. He is only 19 years of age, and was born in Indianapolis, Indiana. From there he moved to Charlotte, N. C. an din 1936 he moved to Cincinnati. He now resides in Pleasant Ridge. He has four sisters and no brothers. He has no hobbies outside of golf. He plans to continue playing the sport but never as a professional. Jim has had no professional training.

Cage Card To Be Completed Soon; 24 Of 25 Booked

The 1950-51 basketball schedule has not yet been completed, according to Al Stephan, Athletic Director. Xavier will play 25 games this season. Twenty four of them have already been scheduled and the last is expected to be lined up before next week.

According to Coach Lew Hirt, this schedule will be the best and toughest in the history of the school. The completed schedule will be released in the next issue of the News.

Record Crowds Seen As Ducat Sales Boom

The turnstile figures on the home games thus far show signs of breaking all attendance records at Xavier. The first game, a capacity crowd of 14,638 persons were on hand for the Quantico-Xavier tilt, the largest crowd in the history of the school ever to witness an opening game.

Away from home, at John Carroll University, the attendance figures showed 8,200 people passing through the gates. This small figure was due mainly to local high school contests played throughout the city that same night.

Outlook Good
Last Saturday evening at the Morehead game, 10,743 people were on hand. From advance ticket sales, the rest of the home games look very prosperous.

As for advance tickets to the rest of the games, both at home and away, there are plenty—except for the UC contest. A word here should be given about tickets for that game. There are no tickets anywhere to be had. According to Al Stephens, this year has been the earliest sellout of tickets for the contest in the history of the school. Last Tuesday marked the closing of the sales.

XU-UC Tickets Allotted

Lest there be some sneering at the Athletic office, here is how the tickets that were to be had were ushered out. Xavier, besides the student activity books, was issued 3,500 ducats out of the 23,000 seats in the stadium. They were issued in turn to the following: Season bookholders received 1200 tickets, stadium boxholders were issued 600 tickets, the Alumni Association received 1250 tickets, the administration of the university received 200 tickets and the Athletic Department and the team together were allowed 250 tickets, Stephens announced.

"Xavier is not the home team and cannot say anything about the amount of tickets received. We get 3500 tickets, no more, no less, and that is all that can be done about it," Al stated. So unless one already has a passbook, a ticket, or a city official badge, prepare to spend Nov. 18 at home next to the radio.

Xavier To Meet Strong Miami Outfit Saturday

Improved Redskin Squad Waiting At Oxford To Avenge Last Year's Loss To Musketeers

By Frank Sommerkamp

Xavier's Musketeers, with a firm grasp on their three consecutive triumphs, will stealthily invade the wooded Oxford, Ohio, reservation Saturday afternoon where 62 rugged Miami Redskins lurk seeking revenge.

Coach Woodrow Hayes' Miami squad is molded around a very adept nucleus—namely, 22 returning lettermen. Of that group are two members of Xavier's all-opponent team of last year, Junior Johnny Pont, the nation's top sophomore ground-gainer in 1949, and Captain Dick Ulrich, a six foot, 185 pound end. Along with Pont and Ulrich, Ernie Plank was chosen to X's opponent team, but Miami lost Plank via graduation.

Pont Leading Back

Pont is very likely to give the Muskies trouble again this year. In 1949, he carried the ball for almost one-third of Miami's season total of plays from scrimmage. Although he was always a marked target, Pont amassed 1,621 yards on rushes, kickoff returns, punt returns and pass receptions. He turned his yardage in for a neat 54 points on the season.

With Coach Hayes serving his second season as head football coach at MU, the saying there is "the year of transition is over. It's Woody Hayes' team now." And so it may be. This year the Redskins can field a more formidable ground defense. It is bigger and more savvy. Offering a problem for Xavier quarterback George Gilmartin is the fact that Miami was ranked second in the nation in pass defense in '49. The alert Redskin secondary sometimes intercepted more passes than it allowed the opponent to complete.

Miami Holds Edge

Saturday's encounter will be the tenth meeting of the two institutions, Miami holding the edge with five victories against Xavier's two triumphs with a pair of games ending in ties. Incidentally, the initial meeting of Xavier and Miami was back in 1902 when the two teams fought to a nothing to nothing tie.

Last year the Muskies rallied in the final half to clinch a 27-19 win. That, incidentally, was the first game of the past season in which Jimmy Liber attempted to participate with a cast on his mending left arm. However, the game officials said no.

This will be the host team's second conflict of the 1950 season. The 'Skins romped over the ball.

Redskin Captain

End Dick Ulrich

Bowling Green Falcons last Saturday, 54-6.

When the starting official whistle sounds at 2:30 p. m. EST, Miami will undoubtedly field the following combination: Norb Wirkowski, who passed for two touchdowns against Bowling Green, will be at quarterback with All-Ohio Johnny Pont at left half and Jerry Beckrest at right half. Beckrest scored one of Miami's touchdowns in '49 against Xavier by romping 87 yards. Against B. G. he tallied three TD's, one on 80 yards, another 68 yards and the last from the one yard marker. Two hundred pound Joe Galat will tote the pigskin from the fullback slot.

Redskin Forward Wall

Maintaining the front line will be Capt Dick Ulrich (185) and Albert Maccioni (186) on the flanks. John Edwards (215) and Ed Schembechler (197) will settle in the tackle berths with Bill Gunlock (190) and Dale Doland (208) at the guard posts. Bob Ellison will probably be over the son. The 'Skins romped over the ball.

A few weeks ago there was mention in this column of free movies at the Art Museum. The schedule has been released, and the first movie is Tuesday night. "Pygmalion" by George Bernard Shaw is the initial offering. This picture, made about ten years ago, stars the late Leslie Howard, who was one of the great Hamlets, and who also played the part of Ashley in "Gone With the Wind," and Wendy Hiller, who in the opening scenes is one of the funniest cockneys you've ever heard. I've seen "Pygmalion" done several times on the stage, but this is the funniest production I've ever seen.

It's the story of a speech technician who picks a cockney girl up practically out of the gutter and makes a lady of her, then wonders what to do with her. Being a lady, she can't strike out on her own, and having had a taste of fine living, she won't go back to the gutter.

The Art Museum is in Eden Park and you can get there by taking a Zoo-Eden Park bus, Route 49, either downtown at Government Square or at Peebles Corner. The show starts at 8 o'clock, but you'd be wise to get there between 7:15 and 7:30 when they're showing a good one. Next week is "The Invisible

The entertainment season starts off with something of a bang next week. Hockey commences at the Cincinnati Garden Sunday night. Next Saturday night, musicians of opposing views will congregate in opposite ends of town to hear great people perform music to satisfy each group. In Music Hall, the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra gives its first Saturday night concert with Gregor Piatigorsky as cello soloist. The program will consist of Bach's grand Toccata, Adagio and Fugue in C major, Strauss's "Don Quixote," and the melodic Seventh Symphony of Beethoven. Don't forget you can get tickets at a 58% discount by simply going to the box office at Wurlitzer's music store, 141 E. 4th St. sometime this week and showing them your activity book. They'll sell you one or two 3.60 tickets for 1.50 each.

* * *

At the same time the Symphony is concertizing, there will be music of another sort at Taft Theater. Norman Granz brings his Jazz at the Philharmonic crew back to Cincinnati, this time with a few additions. Probably the most interesting of these is the young Canadian pianist, Oscar Peterson, who is supposed to be capable of some pretty wonderful improvisations. The other Philharmonic regulars will be on hand too, including Ella Fitzgerald, Flip Phillips, Coleman Hawkins, and other big names in jazz.

To get back to the longhairs for a minute, the Artist Series begins Monday night, October 16. Ljuba Welitch, who set the country on its ear as Salome, will be the first artist. Some of you saw her last year at the May Festival and you know that besides a phenomenal voice she has that stage presence and manner that only the Continental Europeans seem to possess.

The theatre season opens two weeks from tonight with the musical "Lost in the Stars," which will play a three-day run at Taft. This stars Tod Duncan, who was probably the greatest Porgy of "Porgy and Bess" history. Following "Lost in the Stars" will be "Kiss Me Kate," which for a long time played second fiddle only to "South Pacific" on Broadway. My favorite musical "Brigadoon" will be back for a week November 13, and the perennial "Oklahoma" will be back again Thanksgiving week. One of these days they'll make a movie out of the latter, so if you want to see it on the stage this is probably as good a chance as any. "Mr. Roberts" will be back in January, and there's a pretty good chance of seeing Jean Arthur and Boris Karloff in "Peter Pan," the current rage of Broadway, sometime after the first of the year. All of these are worth seeing, but if you'd like to see a show or two and you're limited financially, I'd suggest maybe "Brigadoon" and "Peter Pan." As I see it, these are the best of the ones that are either booked or just prospects.

The X.U. football squad consists of 11 seniors, 18 juniors and 13 sophomores.

Xavier Grad Treats Philosophy And Physics In New Textbook

By Howard Schapker

A book written by a Xavier graduate is always worthy of a cursory glance by present day Xavier students, at least. The appearance of a work which considers so momentous a problem as the relationship between physics and philosophy, and which is written by a Xavier graduate, is an event of no small importance. The book in question is "Philosophical Physics." The Xavier graduate is Vincent Smith.

The Philosophy Department of Xavier University has introduced his opus as a textbook for the Evening Division course, "The Philosophy of Nature."

"Philosophical Physics" is written for a dual audience. For those who have had but a smattering of modern Physics doctrine,—in other words the layman,—Smith restates the basic principles necessary for understanding the balance of the book. For men in the fields of Mathematics and Physics, there is presented a critical analysis of motion, energy, their relationships and formulations.

A notable feature of the work is the honest attempt to clarify the meaning of some terms used in contemporary scientific thought. In answer to the confused thinking of some physicists today, Smith indicates that the Physics of the moderns, men like Einstein and Planck, has usurped the legitimate functions of Physics as the science of real or mobile being. Consequently his definitions are real definitions, based on observation of the real. Throughout the treatise, Smith subscribes to Jacques Maritain's ideas on experimental Physics and the logical approach to it.

Smith, immediately after his graduation from Roger Bacon High School in 1936, enrolled at Xavier University. Upon the completion of his undergraduate work, he journeyed to Switzerland where he received his doctorate. Back in the United States Smith did atomic research.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 2...THE BLOW FISH

"Shucks—I blew in when I should've blown out!"

Pity the poor Piscis! He's been making all those trick cigarette tests you've been reading about! He's taken one puff of this brand — one sniff of that. A quick inhale of cigarette "A" — a fast exhale of cigarette "B" — and he's still confused! Seriously, isn't the sensible way to test a cigarette to smoke pack after pack, day after day?

That's the test Camel asks you to make — the 30-Day Mildness Test. Smoke Camels — and only Camels — regularly for 30 days. Your "T-Zone" (T for Throat and T for Taste) — is the real proving ground for any cigarette. After you've tried Camels as your regular smoke, you'll know why...

More People Smoke Camels
than any other cigarette!

Registration Opens For New Short Courses Offered At EC

Registration is now being held at the Evening College for all Short Courses, the first of which will begin next Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. Each course will run from 7:30 until 9:15, continue for eight weeks, and carry a fee of $8 for the eight week session. The following courses are being offered:

S1-2 Understanding the Ballet.

An introduction to the principles of the ballet and the techniques and devices employed in this art form.

Miss Harriet Smith

Monday 7:30-9:15

Oct. 16-Dec. 4

S2-1 Law for the Layman.

Informal discussions of simple legal problems affecting business and private affairs in sales, wills, domestic relations, conveyances, mortgages, taxes and debtor-creditor relations. The use of forms. Legal services. Retention of counsel.

Jack Williams

Monday 7:30-9:15

Oct. 16-Dec. 4

S5-1 Philosophy and the Drama.

A discussion and comparison of the philosophies of life in the dramas of Sophocles, Shakespeare and in the modern dramas as exemplified in Tennessee Williams and Arthur Miller.

Philip Scharper

Thursday 7:30-9:15

Oct. 19-Dec. 14

S6-1 Refresher in Mathematics.

A review of high school mathematics.

Boosters' Initiation Date To Be Oct. 20

Friday night, October 20, the Booster Club will hold its annual induction and initiation of new members.

At the present time Walt Behler with his committee have been contacting prospective members and for all reports this year's class will be one of the largest in the history of the Boosters.

The initiation will be followed on Sunday, Oct. 22, with Mass at Elet Hall Chapel at 9:30 a. m., on the Evanston Campus. Breakfast in the Student Union and a general meeting and Formal Induction at 11 a. m., immediately followed by a social for the members, will round out that day.

Evening College Reports 6% Drop In Registration

Final tabulation of registrations at the Evening College for the first semester 1950-51 show that 1140 students have signed up for courses, a drop of 70 from last year's first semester registration. This is approximately a 6% drop in registrations from last year's total.

Other evening colleges in the Mid-west area also report substantial drops in registration, most of which is traced to the draft. Three hundred and ninety one of the students in the Evening College are veterans. There are 180 men and 230 women at the Evening College for the first time.

First Year Club To Meet Thursday

Final arrangements have been made for the initial meeting and organization of the First Year Club to be held Thursday evening.

Paul O'Connell and his committee have an interesting evening planned for all those attending.

Anyone attending his first year at XUEC is eligible to become a member and can apply either at the office or by attending the meeting.

Informal Affair Launches Season

The social season at XUEC was formally initiated Friday evening Sept. 29 with an informal party and dance in the school auditorium. Frank Stallo, chairman of the affair, announced that it was a huge success.

Over 100 students and friends attended and danced to the best of music available on record.

Something New For Night Side

Watch for something new in the Night Side of the News. According to Joe Sanker, acting editor, the staff is now being organized and will be announced in the near future.

It is planned to include a regular column, interviews and features plus regular news coverage.

There are still several openings on the staff and anyone interested can get further information in the office.

Semiformal In November

A semi-formal for all XUEC students has been scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 11.

The Victory Room of the Kemper Lane Hotel has been obtained and arrangements are being made to obtain one of the leading local orchestras.

Pershing Rifles; XOMM To March On Holy Name Day

The Pershing Rifles and the Xavier Order of Military Merit will participate in the Holy Name Parade Sunday, Col. George I. Holsinger, PMS&T, announced this week.

The Rifle Club, under the moderation of Major Robert Frey, will soon organize for the season. Membership will be open to all ROTC students. The Varsity Rifle Team will be picked from among the Rifle Club members. The team members will receive letters as acknowledgement of the any skill they show in postal matches with UK, Ohio State, Dayton and Kent State. They will have shoulder to shoulder matches with UC.

The Pershing Rifle men, who will have their own rifle team, will participate in shoulder to shoulder matches with the above mentioned schools. These matches will be held in Dayton in May. The organization is headed by Capt. Walter F. Tucker.

The XOMM is making plans for the Military Ball which will be held sometime in November.

Senior Chem Major Dies Suddenly Sat. Of Ear Infection

A requiem high mass was held last Tuesday at St. Mary's church, Hyde Park for Frank Schnedl, 21, son of Dr. and Mrs. B. A. Schnedl of 2819 Ziegel avenue.

Schnedl, a senior chemistry major, and member of the Alchemysts Club is survived besides by his parents, by two brothers, Robert A., a recent alumnus, and Donald R. and one sister, Mrs. Mary Jane Schroeder.

Schnedl died Saturday at Good Samaritan hospital as the result of a severe ear infection. Burial was held at St. Joseph's old cemetery.

Alchemysts Begin Year's Operations

Under the guidance of Dr. John F. Nobis, the Alchemysts Club has commenced operations for the year with a meeting Monday. President John Moore announced that the first Monday of each month has been determined as meeting day. As one of its first activities the organization plans to sponsor a float for the ceremonies at the Homecoming Game, Oct. 21. During the course of the year, the club hopes to have business men representing various fields of chemistry as guest speakers at their meetings. As yet, no date has been set aside for the club's annual Initiation Banquet.

The organization, beginning its third year of activities, is open to chemistry majors and pre-med students who have completed 12 hours of chemistry.

Rosary Exercises Well Attended

Rosary devotions are being held in room 5 of XUEC each evening Monday through Friday at 6:20 p. m.

Attendance has been very good and an increasing number of students are expected to attend these devotions.

During the month of October the Rosary will be offered in honor of the Lady of Fatima for World Peace.

"One For All" Spirit Found At 'XU' By Palestine Student

By Paul Sweeney

"One for all and all for one seems to be the true spirit of Xavier," exclaimed dark-haired Habeeb Khayat, the new student from Palestine. "For the kind Fathers and students have certainly done everything to make me feel at home," he commented.

Habeeb Albert Khayat, an American of Arabian descent and native of Haifa, Palestine, ar-about Xavier—such as where you could park and where smoking was allowed."

Between 1946 and 1950, Habeeb was enrolled in three different high-schools due to the civil strife in Palestine. "But I am sure," he noted confidently, "that problems facing the new democracy in Israel will be settled shortly."

Realizing his responsibility as the eldest son to assist his father in his business, he has taken up the pre-legal course that he may have a legal background when he returns to Haifa.

A resident of Marian Hall, Habeeb is looking forward to the Miami University game Saturday afternoon. Although he has seen American football, the English-type football (in which you can't touch the ball with your hands) is usually played in Palestine.

Even though Habeeb speaks English, French and Hebrew fluently, he is taking courses in English and French literature.

rived recently in Cincinnati to begin his studies after a 19-hour flight from the Middle-East to America.

When questioned how he chanced upon selecting Xavier University, half-way around the globe, he shrugged his shoulders and replied that his cousin had attended college in Ohio. "My eldest cousin wrote me of the fine universities which were in Ohio, and so I decided upon Xavier because of the humanistic value of a Jesuit training. You know," Habeeb remarked, "at the U. S. Consulate's office in Haifa I could find detailed information

Luken's Placement Bureau Has Jobs For Many Sizes, Tastes

By Brian Shanahan

If you are four and a half feet tall, or six feet tall (or both), Frank Luken, head of the job placement bureau, can find you a job. Are you planning to graduate in January? Will you want a job? In that case, "Start early! The earlier the start, the better the chances of success," Luken advises.

The procedure of getting a job is simple and effective. Merely register with the Employment Bureau in Hinkle Hall. There seems to be enough jobs to go around, but if applicants wait, Luken said, the probable jam will hurt their chances of getting a position and likewise impair the efficiency of the bureau, which will have had unfilled jobs lying around.

Part-time jobs now available include those of typists, truck drivers, proof readers, cost accountants and car parkers.

Council Harsh On Beanie Question

Gann volunteered to see Father O'Connor to request permission.

Dates cleared included an on-campus Hallowe'en Dance, Friday evening, Nov. 3, and the Military Ball to be held this year on Friday, Nov. 17, at the Gibson Roof Garden.

A reply was expected at anytime from the Student Welfare Board replying to Council's request that they be permitted to sponsor informal dances on campus after certain high school night games at Xavier Stadium.

trophies to the best floats this year. The committee has also promised many colorful and unique stadium decorations for the affair.

All organizations wishing to enter floats in the float parade should submit a brief plan to Irvin Beumer in the Veterans office for approval. This will cut down on duplications of floats by various clubs. Student Council and the Alumni Association are sponsoring the parade, allowing $25 expense money per float. Further rules and regulations concerning the parade can be found posted around the campus.

Along with the announcement of festivities, the committee reminds all that this year's Homecoming Queen will be elected by the entire student body at a general election to be held next Wednesday and Thursday. A brochure of the candidates for queenship, including their photographs and a brief paragraph of general information, will be displayed prominently on campus for two days before and during the election. Candidates will be drawn from applicants from the Evening Division.

Thus far, members of the committee assisting Cade and Kisner include: Pete Wilton and Alfred Hamm, both juniors, Co-chairmen, Stadium decorations; Jim Sassen, sophomore, Chairman, Queen's float construction, and Frank Sommerkamp, junior, Chairman, Signs and Specialties committee. Members of these subcommittees have not as yet been appointed. Anyone interested in serving in any capacity on the Homecoming game committee should contact either of the Co-chairmen at Tw. 2168, Co-chairman Cade said.

IRC May Affiliate With Similar Clubs

Xavier's International Relations Club is considering affiliating with other similar clubs in the Cincinnati college area, Lynn Farmer, president, announced after Monday's meeting.

The club, moderated by William M. Canning, instructor in history and political science, held its first meeting Monday, at which three members were present. New members are welcome, Farmer stated.

FRC To Discuss Collegian View Of Family Life

Xavier will be host to the first meeting of their Cincinnati Catholic Colleges' Family Relations Club at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the Fine Arts Room, Albers Hall.

Members from Mt. St. Joseph College, Our Lady of Cincinnati College and Villa Madonna College will join with students from the Evanston and Downtown campuses for the meeting.

The topic of discussion will be "The Collegian Looks at the Family."

Reports will be made on committee activities for the year; on the Xavier Family Life Conference which the club is helping to sponsor Oct. 13, 14 and 15, and on the club's annual picnic held Sunday (Oct. 1) at Clariola, club grounds near Alexandria, Ky., which was attended by more than 200 students of the four colleges.

All Xavier students are eligible for membership in the club, officials have emphasized. Members do not have to be married or engaged.

Janca Re-elected Cleveland Prexy

Bob Janca, liberal arts junior, was re-elected president of the Cleveland Club in a recent election.

Hank Shea, arts sophomore, takes over as vice-president of the club, a spot which was held by Gene Kawana last year. Senior Bob Marquard, Sodality prefect, was re-elected secretary. Jim McGrath, arts freshman, was chosen to fill the treasurer post
